Dear [Redacted]

Thank you for your letter of 8 August calling to my attention a compliance matter that is indeed of interest to me. I have already discussed the situation with my inspector leading a current inspection of CIA (Office of SIGINT Operations (OSO)) ELINT/COMINT activities. As you might expect, the entire area of [Redacted], including compliance, is an important issue in this inspection. You can be assured that the factor you identified will be thoroughly scrubbed.

In much the same vein, I would like to invite you to join me for lunch here at Langley at your convenience within the next week or so. I would plan to have a few of the inspectors reviewing OSO activities join us with the intent of exchanging views, as well as establishing guidelines with respect to our dealing with NSA personnel at CIA installations overseas.

I look forward to your visit and await your call naming a date. Of course, if you find it difficult to spare the time to come out here, I would be glad to visit you.

Best wishes,

[Redacted Signature]

John H. Waller
Inspector General
